Santa Claus came to Antioch in a helicopter last Saturday, delighting hundreds of his young friends who gathered to greet him.

Santa Claus Visits Antioch

Santa Claus arrived in Antioch last Saturday via helicopter and was greeted by a host of his young friends.

The helicopter carrying Santa landed in the village parking lot at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. About fifteen youngsters were treated to free rides in the helicopter. Names of the lucky youngsters were drawn from those deposited in boxes which had been in stores for some time.

Santa greeted youngsters individually at the Rescue Squad building, and gave out small gifts.

Christmas decorations had been installed around town before Santa's arrival. The Chamber of Commerce had arranged for Santa's visit, and put up street decorations and the Christmas tree near the Chamber building.

Christmas music is being played through loud speakers on downtown streets throughout shopping hours from now until Christmas. Most stores are open evenings until 9 p.m.

School Officials To Probe New Federal Programs For Aid

Administrators of seven elementary schools will meet on Thursday, Dec. 9 (today) along with high school officials at Antioch High School. The purpose of the meeting is to examine the new federal aid programs in an exploratory attempt to determine possible areas in which the schools might cooperate to improve services and facilities for area students under the broad new federal programs.

The recent Elementary-Secondary Education Act of 1965 will be the primary bill under consideration.

Administrators have been invited to bring to the meeting other items outside the realm of federal aid which might also be discussed in an attempt to further improve communications and cooperation among the several districts.

Children's Show At PM&L Theater

The PM&L is presenting a special holiday Children's Show on Saturday, Dec. 18, at the PM&L Theater on Main St.

There will be two shows, one at 2 p.m. and one at 7:30 p.m.

"The Land of the Dragon" is the title of the play. The cast is made up of members of the Kenosha Little Theater. They have presented the show in Kenosha, and are bringing it to Antioch through arrangements of the Antioch PM&L.

Ticket reservations may be made by calling 395-3613.

Antioch Legion to Sponsor Free Movie

Antioch American Legion Post No. 748 is providing a free movie for the children of Antioch at 2 p.m. Saturday, December 18, at the Antioch Theatre on Lake St. All children from the Antioch area are welcome, on a first come, first served basis.

Students To Air Views At ACHS Swap Session

Recent graduates of Antioch High School have been invited by school officials to attend a "swap session" and social hour with school officials, guidance personnel, and teachers and students who wish to attend, on December 30 from 3 to 5 p.m.

The purpose of the get-together is to check student reaction and adjustment to college life; to learn from students what areas they consider to be weak points or strong points in their preparation; and generally to check progress and renew acquaintances.

This meeting holiday date was selected because of the number of students who return to the area from colleges and universities during this period.

Such affairs in the past have produced valuable insight into the effectiveness of the high school in preparing the college bound student, according to school administrators.

Illinois House Reapportioned

Reapportioning of Illinois House districts was finally completed last Tuesday. A ten-man commission set the boundaries of the new districts, avoiding another election-at-large.

The new map puts Antioch township in District 31, with the townships of Newport, Benton, Zion, Grant, Lake Villa, Avon, Warren and Waukegan.

Failure to agree on reapportioning brought about the first at-large election in the nation's history last year. A special ballot with the names of all candidates for the House was necessary.

Conolly Chairman of 1966 Red Cross Fund

John H. Conolly, President of Conolly & Company, Waukegan, and a member of the Illinois House of Representatives, has been named 1966 Fund Chairman for the Lake County Region, American Red Cross. It was announced by Edward Arpee, Regional Chairman.

Conolly will direct the fund-raising efforts of the Red Cross in the Lake County Region of the Mid-America Chapter. He will be supported by a corps of volunteer workers to solicit industry, businesses, offices, and others.

Conolly serves on three committees in the Illinois Legislative Council, the research arm of the legislature. He recently was appointed a Committee Chairman of the National Legislative Conference.

He resides at 4305 Grand Avenue, Gurnee.

Other officers chosen for the year ahead are Harold L. Schreiber, Rt. 1, Box 225, Bristol, vice president; and Charles Gillmore, Rt. 2, Box 610, Kenosha, secretary-treasurer.

LeRoy Gillmore, Rt. 2, Box 525, Kenosha, was elected delegate. Alternate delegate is Charles H. Lang, Rt. 2, Box 516, Kenosha, and Everett Bengdick, Rt. 2, Box 510, Bristol, was chosen as committeeman.

Fine Arts Dept. To Present Concert Of Christmas Music

The annual Christmas Concert will be presented by the Fine Arts Department of Antioch Community High School at 8 p.m. December 19 in the High School auditorium.

A varied program of songs from all eras will be presented, ranging from a thirteenth century plain song to a twentieth century pop standard.

Special features of the program will be Shigeo Chiba singing a Christmas carol in Japanese, Betty Frank singing a vocal solo and the Swing Choir with a group of Christmas numbers.

Plan Field Trips For ACHS Students

Two field trips have been planned for Antioch High School students in the near future. Mrs. Betty Scott, Spanish teacher at Antioch High School, will take a group of 40 students on a trip Saturday, December 11. The group will lunch at an authentic Spanish cafe in Chicago and then move on to view Spanish exhibits at Chicago's lake front Museum of Science and Industry.

On December 14, Mrs. Barbara Boynewicz will escort a group of 30 students in Social problems to Elgin State Hospital.

The strength and weaknesses of such institutions will be examined and explained during the trip. Those students interested in psychology, as a possible career will be able to see first-hand examples of people now operating in this field of endeavor.

All such field trips are arranged through the Student Personnel Office which schedules busses, provides for sponsorship, and requires a permission slip from the parents of each student involved.

Wanted-1,000 Dozen Christmas Cookies

Members of the Junior Red Cross and Girl Scouts have appealed to Lake County housewives to help them in the Christmas project they've undertaken. They hope to accumulate 1,000 dozen Christmas cookies to distribute to hospitalized servicemen and veterans at the Great Lakes Naval Hospital and the Downey VA Hospital.

They ask those who will bake cookies to deliver them Dec. 15 and Dec. 18 to the Lake County Regional office of the American Red Cross, 308 Julian St., Waukegan.

Resort Fire Smoulders Thru Night

Antioch firemen were called to Eddie Halling's resort on Grass Lake three times Monday night and early Tuesday morning.

Firemen were called at 10:15 p.m. Monday and worked 1½ hours to extinguish a blaze in the kitchen and a walk-in refrigerator.

The second call came at 5 a.m. Tuesday. Fire Chief Simonsen said pulp wood packing around the refrigerator continued to smoulder.

The third call, at about 9 a.m. Tuesday, was again caused by the smouldering packing, which Simonsen said burns like punk. The third time the firemen removed most of the packing and carried it outside, soaking it to extinguish all the fire.

Simonsen said the fire probably started from a leak in a bottled gas line. He estimated damage to the resort at $10,000 to $12,000.

Halling's resort is the former Progenzer's Resort at Grass Lake. The roof of the kitchen portion was destroyed.

Bruised, Shaken Up In Collision

Mrs. Ralph (Gert) Redlin, Rt. 1, Trevor, was bruised and received a whiplash injury when the car she was in was struck by another car on Lake St. last Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 1.

The Redlin car, with Mr. Redlin at the wheel, was parked in front of Erickson's Sewing Center on the north side of Lake St. about 5:30 p.m. Redlin had just picked up his wife, who works at Gibbs & Jonsson's.

A car driven by Dolores Horton, Charles Court, Antioch, struck the Redlin car in the rear. Miss Horton said she had a malt and sandwich on the seat beside her. When the malt tipped, she looked down and reached for it, losing control of her car.

Miss Horton was charged with negligent driving.

Post Office Open Saturdays For Christmas Mailing

The Antioch Post Office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. the next two Saturdays, Dec. 11 and 18, announces Roy Kufalk, postmaster.

The postoffice usually closes at noon Saturday and will return to this schedule after December 18.

"There's no real Christmas rush yet, but the mail is picking up," Roy said. "Incoming parcel post is heavier than usual."

Roy, who was supposed to retire Dec. 1, is still on the job, as the appointment of a postmaster has not been made.

Bluejackets To Give Christmas Concert

The Great Lakes Bluejacket Chorus will be featured in a Christmas program on Dec. 12 at Holy Name Chapel at Great Lakes.

The program, which is open to the public, will begin at 8:30 p.m. Seating for 1,000 persons has been arranged.

The concert of Christmas songs will be preceded by a short organ concert.

The Bluejacket Chorus was originally formed in 1940 by a chaplain at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. The Chorus presently consists of 80 men.

There is no admission charge for any Bluejacket Chorus concert. Access to the chapel is through the Main Gate of Great Lakes, just off Sheridan Road. Proceed to the first stop sign and turn left. The chapel is easily identified by a lighted white cross.

New Well Pumps Over 1,000 Gal. A Minute

The new village well will pump up to 1,300 gallons a minute, tests last week disclosed.

Superintendent of Public Works Edgar Simonsen reported the figures on the new well's capacity at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

Simonsen pointed out that the tank on the fire truck would hold about 800 gallons. "That's a lot of water to pump in a minute," he pointed out.

The quality of the water, iron-wise, is poorer than the existing wells. Village Engineer Roger Patzer said. Iron content is about double that in the old wells. Housewives who have been complaining of iron stains in laundry and fixtures will find conditions no better with the new well.

The high iron content will make a filtration plant almost necessary, Patzer said. The filtration plant will make chlorination of the water necessary also, he said.

Board members asked for an estimate of the cost of the filtration plant, and Patzer said he would prepare one for the next meeting.

Mayor Ray Toft said the original plan to install a water-softening plant would have to be abandoned, because of the high cost of both installation and maintenance.

SEWER ON ANITA AVE.

Patzer reported the result of test borings on Anita Ave.

for the installation of a fifteen-inch sewer. At Depot St., he said, it was necessary to go down 18 feet to hit solid material. The second boring, on the bank of Sequoit Creek, at a point farther south, struck good material at eight feet.

Patzer asked permission to take three more borings at points along the street for information for estimates of cost. It will be necessary, he said, to excavate to the depth of the poor material and back-fill with gravel.

The new sewer line will go from Depot St. to Ida Ave. on Anita Ave., then west on Ida to the lift station at the railroad tracks.

Trustee Roger Williams reported that he had asked car dealers to move cars on display nine feet back from the curb line, to provide more sidewalk space for pedestrians. Williams said all agreed, and the Mayor and Village Board expressed their appreciation of the cooperation.

Mayor Toft asked the board's approval of a suggestion to move the postoffice drive-up box from its position in front of the post-office to Broadway. Moving the box would make it more accessible, and leave space for five-minute parking for post-office customers.

Toft suggested removing one parking meter near the post office at the same time. At the present time, he said, it is usually impossible to find a parking place near the post office for people who need only five-minute parking.

The post office drive-up box will be on the west side of Broadway near the village park.

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that the committee had set up a scale of fees for permits for plumbing, building, and electrical work. The new schedule is aimed at keeping better control over building and remodeling work done in the village, to avoid problems later. Copies were given to board members for study.

Chairman of the Police Committee Arthur Meierdink read the suggestions from the Suggestion box. All involved parking problems.

Meierdink reported that the radar equipment for police cars had been repaired and is back in operation.

The board discussed the problem of vehicle tags. It was pointed out that regulation of vehicle tags was unequal in some cases. A committee of Robert Wilton, Irving Walsh and Roger Williams was appointed to study the matter and prepare a new ordinance.

Village Clerk Clarence Shultis reported that he had many requests for maps of the village, and asked permission to purchase some for sale. The board agreed to table the matter until the new zoning maps are prepared.

The board approved a petition for annexation to the village by John and Audrey Udell, of Lots 25, 26 and 27 in Antioch Hills.

A resolution directs the American Legion to sponsor and support legislation to provide for persons who serve in the armed forces of the United States on or after Aug. 5, 1964, and until such times as conditions of war no longer exist, eligibility for: Hospital, Domiciliary, Nursing Home, and medical care for non-service connected conditions; wartime rates of death and disability compensation; death and disability pension; an insurance program; education or training; reimbursement of burial expenses and furnishing burial flags; and assistance in the purchase of an automobile or other conveyance.

The American Legion is extending its services to veterans of the war in Viet Nam.

Officers of the Legion throughout the State of Illinois have joined with its Washington staff to extend rehabilitation services to Viet Nam servicemen. The National Executive Committee approved the date of Wednesday, August 5, 1964, as the date of eligibility for the servicemen. They will receive the same services given World War II and Korean War veterans.

The children's club, a group of about 50 children from five to 17 years old, was organized in 1932. They were brought together by a common interest in Swedish music, folk dances and traditions.

Over the years, hundreds of children have been members of the club. They have traveled to many cities in Illinois and Wisconsin, and have appeared on radio and television.

The Varblomann Club has participated in two trips to Sweden, the most recent in 1963. The children also appear at the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago in their annual celebration of Christmas Around the World.

The colorful costumes worn by the children appeal to the entire family. The program will last an hour, after which a buffet luncheon will be served by the ladies of St. Stephen Church.

Mathon interprets the language of the perch to forecast the weather. Doc Solar gets the word straight from the mushrooms. Right now, I'd rather not listen to either of them as they keep talking about snow and cold.

Maybe some of the flowering plants are trying to tell us something. Last week, Dorla Rynard reported her Easter lily was in bloom, which is really pushing the season. Now Fred Chapp, who lives on North Ave. in Antioch, brings in a branch of the flowering quince bush which grows in his yard.

The quince is covered with half-opened buds and small green leaves. Normally, the quince blooms very early in the spring.

Either this particular quince has a bad shock coming or spring is on its way. I fear the quince may find it made a mistake.

Incidentally, Doc Solar reports that a friend from Chicago recently pointed out to him that the AMA has recommended that people quit picking their own mushrooms. They might make a mistake and get hold of a poison one.

"Doc pooh-poohs the idea. 'The AMA probably cornered the commercial mushroom market and is removing competition,' says he cynically.

The cost of wives has soared so high in Africa that government price controls are being suggested.

Angry young men are joining a movement protesting the high cost of brides. They're even talking about wanting a money-back guarantee if the wives don't produce children.

It has been customary for husbands to get their money back if a wife's misdeeds cause the marriage to fail. On the other hand, if the husband is at fault, he loses his money and his wife.

Look At Home First

Before you spend time and gas money going to some near-by larger city to Christmas shop, take a look at home.

Antioch's stores are well-stocked with the items needed for a Merry Christmas this year. And you'll find prices identical on most items. In cases where there's a few cents variation, the Antioch store has a lower price as often as the out-of-town store.

There are a number of good reasons for shopping close to home. You save time, and the money for extra gas for your car. Traffic is not quite so heavy, nor are the stores so congested.

Some of the stores in larger cities are already sold out of the choice items. Local stores still have many of them.

Remember, the best way to make sure that Antioch stores will carry a good selection is to keep as much of the trade as possible at home. If merchants think they can find a market for them, they'll carry the items you want.

The sales records is also the best way to insure that those new stores you're hoping for will be considering the town as a site for a new store. Shop in Antioch this year, and next year the local shopping will be bigger and better than ever.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Well, you can't guess right on all of them. It must be admitted that success in reaching agreement on the reapportioning of the Illinois House of Representatives came as a surprise to this corner.

The new map, of course, will not be perfect in all respects and will not satisfy those idealists who expect politicians to shun politics in reaching political decisions, but it is as good as we have a right to expect.

Considerable compromising went into the district drafting and it is reasonable to suppose that some of the decisions were based on the flip of a coin, the turn of a card, or the roll of the dice.

Agreement on the remap, of course, opens a whole new range of speculation about possible candidates, the ultimate makeup and control of the House, and the number of representatives each party will try to elect from each district.

Since the composition of the new districts in many cases will be a question until all the ballots are counted it is perhaps logical to suggest that each party enter three candidates in the general election in the fall.

This may hurt the minority party in this election, but minority representation will be assured in the future through the cumulative voting arrangement.

Any attempt by local party leaders to limit the number of general election candidates can only be construed as part of a pre-arranged scheme to set up districts to protect incumbents and to strip the voters of a chance to make a real choice.

In predicting the healthy list of candidates who are going to seek the six legislative spots available for Lake County and southeastern McHenry County you have to start with the incumbents, although Rep. John Henry Kleime may take himself out of the race to seek the GOP nomination for State Senator from the new senatorial district in the southern part of Lake County and some of the western townships.

This would still leave a full complement of incumbents since Democrats Dan Pierce and Howard Slater, and Francis Berry, Libertyville, Republican, are from the southern district.

Republican John Conolly, of Gurnee, and his Democratic counterpart William Hartnett are certain to run leaving just one vacancy in the

Ski Lodge Trip For Ice Queen

The first entries for the Fox Lake Festival on Ice Queen Contest are starting to pour into the Festival Headquarters at 8 North Forest Avenue, Fox Lake.

The queen will be selected from a field of several area beauties as a part of the huge Fox Lake Festival on Ice, January 7-8-9. Larry Leafblad, Festival Co-chairman, announced that the grand prize for the queen will be an expense paid weekend for two at Pine Mountain Ski Lodge in upper Michigan.

The queen and her companion will be treated royally during the weekend with such things as travel, lodging, dining, and various forms of entertainment provided them without cost. Arrangements are being made through Cray Travel Service of Waukegan.

The entry blank and rules appear in this issue of the newspaper and all potential queens from the Antioch area are urged to enter before the December 26 deadline.

The Fox Lake Festival on Ice is a 3-day, fun-filled weekend centered around ABC's national television coverage of the International Ice Boating Races. The event will feature, among other things, a twelfth night ceremony, a Friday night concert at Grant (Fox Lake) High School, Friday night Family Ice Skating, a Festival Ball for the adults and a teen hop for the younger set. . . .

Tickets for the Clark Weber Teen Dance and the Festival on Ice Ball were made available for sale at Antioch High School last week. Weber is the host for a popular "Wake-up" show on WLS, and specializes in MC engagements throughout the mid-west for Teen-age dances and shows.

Most of his shows feature name popular-music groups. WLS has indicated that they cannot release the names of the artists until a short period before the Fox Lake Festival on Ice.

The queen will be crowned at the Festival on Ice Ball at the Fox Lake American Legion Hall Saturday evening, January 8. "Music at the Ball" will be provided by the Scotch-Lads. Leafblad said, "We cordially invite all Antioch area folks to attend all the festivities. Even though there will be plenty happening all the time, there is fun for all planned into the Festival, and the event can be enjoyed by a whole family at a cost of little or nothing."

The Christmas decorating contest is on and anyone wishing to enter can do so by sending a card with their name, address and directions on how to reach their home to the Antioch Moose Lodge, 884, Main St. Deadline for sending in your card is Dec. 20, and the judging of the contest will take place on December 23. Prizes will be awarded to the four best decorated homes.

The Legion of the Moose will have their Christmas party on Sunday, Dec. 12, at 2 p.m. with a gift exchange also.

The mother and daughter banquet will be held this (Thursday) evening, Dec. 9, at the Antioch Moose Lodge, starting at 7 p.m.

The L.O.O.M. is planning for the New Year's Eve party to take place at the Antioch Moose Lodge, and governor Arthur LaFlamme says there will be fun, refreshments and entertainment for all members and their guests. This year, as it was last year, will be open house for all members.

Attending the green cap night at Fox Lake Monday, Dec. 6 from Antioch were collegian chairman, Gerry Mark, who took a chair as argus, Gladys Schroeder who was pianist, with Emily Novotny and Lillian Birdsell to represent their chapter.

The L.O.O.M. Antioch ritual team performed the initiation ceremony for 14 new members Saturday evening, Dec. 4. This was the largest class they had for this year. Enrolled as new members were Ray B. March of Dimes Aids Legless Girl Learn English — Now She Walks

What does learning to speak English have to do with learning to walk?

Puerto Rico-born Juanita Pena, Cleveland, Ohio, can tell you—in excellent English—if you can coax her to sit still a minute before running off to join her playmates. As she turns to leave, you have to look closely to detect her artificial legs.

The lively first-grader scarcely resembles the shy, Spanish-speaking child whose family brought her to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center at Cleveland Metropolitan General Hospital two years ago. Juanita was born with useless stumps of skin and cartilage extending backward at right angles from her knees. She learned early in life to "walk" on her knees with shoes turned backward to fit over and protect the stumps.

Pediatricians, orthopedists, physical therapists and many other medical specialists at the March of Dimes Center examined Juanita. They decided to remove the stumps surgically and fit her with artificial lower limbs which would raise her to normal height for her age and enable her to walk naturally.

Language A Barrier

"But it became evident very soon that the language barrier between the English-speaking specialists and the child who understood only Spanish was going to prevent any progress," says Dr. John E. Allen, center medical director.

"She was shy and frightened and couldn't understand that we were doing what we had to do to help her be like normal children."

Fortunately, a therapist on the center team spoke fluent Spanish. Under her direction, Juanita began to learn English through play with familiar household furnishings in a dollhouse.

"In no time," Dr. Allen says, "she was able to understand our explanations and follow instructions. After she got her artificial legs and physical therapy was started, we could literally see her walking improve as her English improved."

While Juanita was living in Puerto Rico, her parents sought help for her deformity but were advised to wait until she was old enough to decide for herself whether she wanted artificial legs.

BORN WITHOUT LEGS; Juanita Pena, 7, Cleveland, Ohio, learned English through play with dollhouse furnishings at March of Dimes Birth Defects Center. Facility with the language enabled her to understand instructions in how to walk with artificial limbs.

Such thinking has become outmoded.

"A child generally begins to have definite ideas of what his body looks like and how to use it at about three or four years of age," Dr. Allen says. "If he needs an artificial limb, and is going to learn to use it successfully, it should be fitted at a very early age."

"Once a child has learned to get along without a missing extremity, it becomes more difficult for him to accept an artificial one," Juanita came in just under the wire for successful adjustment to her legs."

Enters Public School

After she became accustomed to her "new" legs, Juanita entered a special kindergarten. She did so well that she was accepted this fall into regular public school. With her playmates she now walks the ten blocks to and from school.

"That's where she belongs," Dr. Allen says. "She is no longer a cripple and doesn't think of herself as a cripple."

FTA Observes Thanksgiving

The Future Teachers of America completed two projects and a Thanksgiving display at Antioch High School during the Thanksgiving season. Their purpose in each case was to extend a blessing and to ask that everyone be thankful for the many privileges we enjoy.

To symbolize the sharing of our prosperity with others, the members brought fruit, nuts and cookies to fill two baskets, one to go to a person chosen for his many services to the community, the other to a home for the Aged.

The theme of their projects was "Let us count our blessings." A display they prepared at the high school portrayed the small children who are the descendants of the Pilgrim children, now in school and learning about this great country.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." This verse from the ninety-first Psalm will open the Bible Lesson-Sermon this Sunday at all Christian Science churches. The subject will be "God the Preserver of Man."

The readings from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook will explore some of the ways in which the "secret place" is discovered by man.

These sentences from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be included: "It is ignorance and false belief, based on a material sense of things, which hide spiritual beauty and goodness. Understanding this, Paul said: 'Neither death, nor life, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God'" (p. 304).

"I've taken the criticism of my work that I'm going to take! How do you spell 'quit'?"

himself, Grass Lake Resort was for many years a haven of hunters and anglers.

Lew is also the father of Jack Pregenzer, pitcher who made the big leagues in baseball. Jack was formerly with the San Francisco Giants.

Tape It

Tape recorder—now little bigger than portable radios and just as easy to operate—are replacing pen and ink as correspondence tools. G.E.'s 1966 battery model shown.

The tape recorder may soon be ranked as the greatest aid to correspondence since the invention of ink! So rapidly has the popularity of tape letter writing grown that according to a recent U.S.O. survey voice tape recordings are the most sought-after Christmas greetings by service men overseas.

Greatest impetus to "voice letters" has been the introduction of the inexpensive push-button portable tape recorder with features formerly found only in expensive recording equipment. Newest is General Electric's under-fifty-dollar, battery-operated model, which includes a recording level indicator, remote-control microphone, an earphone connection, and a 150 foot reel of tape. Tapes in reusable mailing cartons are readily available.

Also contributing to the burgeoning popularity of the tape recorder is its versatility. In addition to making possible the pure joy occasioned by hearing baby's first words or the familiar voices of those too far away from home to visit, home tape recorders are being used for practicing speeches, recording lectures and student discussions, taping exercise programs, recording party music, collecting sound autographs, cueing participants in amateur dramatics, and message recording. As fast as a list of tape recorder uses is compiled, someone finds a new one, but there's a school of thought which holds that their greatest benefit is in eliminating for once and for all the ages-old complaint: "I'm sorry but I couldn't read your hand writing!"

Plan For Outdoor Recreation In Ill.

A comprehensive plan on outdoor recreation in Illinois was submitted to the United States Department of Interior, Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, to qualify Illinois for federal grants from the Land and Water Conservation Fund.

The plan, entitled "Outdoor Recreation in Illinois," was drafted by the department of Business and Economic Development in cooperation with the Department of Conservation. The former has been designated by Gov. Otto Kerner as the state's official planning agency.

If the plan is approved by the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation and the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Illinois public agencies can begin receiving federal funds for the acquisition and development of land parcels for recreation purposes.

It is anticipated that these funds will be available by the first of next year.

Candlelight Service For Stillson-Hauser Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hauser

Miss Goldie Marie (Dee) Stillson and Michael A. Hauser were united in marriage at five o'clock candlelight double ring ceremony in St. Ignace Episcopal Church, Antioch, by the Rev. Father Bessette on Saturday, November 27. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Melvin M. Stillson.

The bride wore a cape gown of peau de soie with Alencon lace around the high waistline and extending up the bodice. The gown had an oval neckline, long buttoned tapered sleeves and an "A" line skirt. The detachable cape with Alencon lace insertion continued into a regal flowing chapel length train bordered with an insertion of Alencon lace. A pearl and lace crown held her silk illusion scalloped lace applied three-tiered veil with blusher veil. She carried a hand-drawn and lace handkerchief made by her great-grandmother.

Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis and white snowdrift mums with strands of myrtle, ivy and pittosporum and stephanotis leaves and white satin streamers.

Mrs. Dean Holcomb, a college roommate and sorority sister, as matron of honor; and Miss Joan Wagner, a lifetime friend, as bridesmaid, wore floor length moss green-brocade and mortar-crepe gowns fashioned with scoop necklines, elbow length sleeves and empire waist. The sheath skirts detailed detachable wateau back panels of green brocade. A rose cluster plateau in matching fabric and color with veiling completed their ensembles.

The attendants carried cascades of rust, gold and bronze pompoms and white snowdrift mums with eucalyptus leaves for background and foliage green and gold streamers.

Robert Jasna, lifetime friend of the groom, was best man and Bud Ciadlini, another friend, was groomsmen. Serving as ushers were Melvyn B. Stillson, brother of the bride and Bernie Spaeth, friend of the groom.

The church pews were decorated with white satin bows, white pompoms and baker ferns. Two large bouquets of white mums and emerald leaves graced the altar.

The mother of the bride wore an ensemble of moss green brocade that matched the attendants' gowns. She and the aunt of the bridegroom wore corsages of white phalaenopsis orchids.

The bride's going away corsage was of white orchids and myrtle. Her three-piece suit was aqua and white.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for 300 was held at the Angels. A buffet supper was served, followed by dancing. A beautifully decorated five-tiered wedding cake, of which the top two tiers were held up by white swan pillars, was served the guests. In charge of cutting and serving the cake were Delores Stillson, sister-in-law of the bride; June Barnhill, cousin; and Georgette Mattson, former roommate and friend.

Debbie Stillson, niece, was in charge of the guest book, assisted by Linda Stillson. The three nephews, Bobby, Bernie and Randy Stillson, took charge of the gift packages.

Out of town relatives were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Benser, of Volin, South Dakota; aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shepherdson of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Barnhill and children David and Lisa of Minneapolis, Minnesota; and brother Melvyn B. Stillson, his wife Delores, and their five children, of DeKalb, Illinois. The bridegroom's relatives included his aunts, Lorraine Kidinski and Mrs. Catherine Rossa and others in and around Milwaukee, and Dr. and Mrs. Bast of Michigan.

Dee is a graduate of Wisconsin State University, Whitewater, Wis., where she belonged to the Delta Zeta Sorority, and is presently teaching biology in the Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Mike is attending Wisconsin State University, Whitewater, where he is now doing his student teaching and is a Sig Tau. He expects to graduate in June and then teach in an elementary school.

The Christmas gift a woman never forgets, a wonderful electric dishwasher

A wife likes pretty, personal gifts at Christmas. But she loves practical ones, too. And probably the most wanted practical gift of all is an electric dishwasher. Nothing else she can own saves her so many endless hours of drudgery. Come to think of it, how could a gift be more personal, or look prettier to her?

With just a flick of a switch a dishwasher washes, rinses, and dries... all automatically. Glasses, dishes, and flatware come out sparkling, without water spots or towel streaks. Everything is washed and rinsed in water hotter than hands... even gloved hands... can stand. Then it's dried in pure, clean, electrically heated air that's far more sanitary than any dish towel.

You can now get a portable dishwasher, if you like, that does every bit as good a job. Portables need no plumbing connections, and they can be permanently installed in a new kitchen later.

You'll be surprised how little it costs to give your wife the happiness that comes with a new electric dishwasher. See the built-in and portable models at your electric appliance dealer's now. And a Merry Christmas to you both.

Antioch High School students wait for the signal to return to classes after clearing the school in record time in a recent fire drill.

Clear Building In Record Time

Antioch High School students, 970 of them, recently cleared the entire building in a record time of one (1) minute, thirty-five (35) seconds. The drill was conducted during one of the 4 lunch periods to test the school's capability to clear the building at a time when better than 200 students were gathered in the cafeteria. Fears that a crowd in the cafeteria would create a bottleneck in an emergency were refuted by the experiment.

"This time for the drill was decided upon by school officials in an effort to be more realistic about fire drills."

"Fires can occur at any time of the day, not just when it is most convenient to have a fire drill," said Lawrence Eggleston, Student Affairs Director.

In future, drills, selected corridors and exits will be superficially blocked in an attempt to test student and faculty reactions to unheeded emergency situation. "Should an emergency fire situation ever arise in reality, we are confident that we can get our students from the building to a safe position with a minimum amount of danger to anyone," said Mr. Eggleston.

New Reader Speeds Mail

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien recently inaugurated the Post Office Department's first high-speed optical "reading" machine.

The machine, unveiled at a ceremony in the highly mechanized Detroit post office, began reading printed or typed ZIP Codes on letters and sorting them at the rate of 36,000 an hour.

"We have entered a new era with development of a high-speed optical ZIP Code reader," the Postmaster General said, "and its capabilities are phenomenal. It is the newest link in our chain of improved mail service."

The new ZIP Code reader, attached to an existing letter sorter machine, is 15 times faster than hand sorting.

In addition, the equipment ultimately will read the second line of the address and sort incoming local mail directly to the letter carrier delivery routes.

In tests with live mail passing through the Washington, D. C. post office, a prototype reader installed in the Postal Engineering Laboratory accepted and read standard envelopes as well as those with address windows and addresses affixed with gummed stickers with 99 percent accuracy. The machine does

Cutting Down County Board Could Cut Cost

Legislation allowing downstate counties to appoint a chief administrative officer and to reduce the number on the county board in the populous township organization counties could make for more efficiency, Maurice W. Scott, Executive Secretary of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois said recently.

By statute county boards in township counties need only have two meetings a year, the annual meeting on the second Tuesday of September and the regular meeting on the second Tuesday of June. Of course, more necessary meetings are held, because provision is contained in the statutes for calling special meetings, and often adjourned meetings of the annual and regular meetings carry over into later months.

But the fact is that members of the county board have to devote the majority of their time to their occupations to earn a livelihood and do not have the time to adequately administer the affairs of a county. The appointment of a chief administrative officer by the board seems to be a likely solution. The governing body, the county board, would retain responsibility for policy, while the administrator would be responsible for administration. The position of the chief administrative officer, authorized by a new statute, could be created in a county by an ordinance or resolution of the county board. The administrative officer would exercise budget supervision, including control of purchases, and some control over personnel. In budget-making he should have the authority to assemble departmental estimates and forward them to the county board with his recommendations.

The advantages of the plan seem to be three: first, an effective system of budgetary control could be established. Activities of the various officers and departments would be controlled so as to stay within the budget. The budget would be prepared with over-all county purposes in view and would be an integrated document. The board would have the advice of one who is working more than occasionally upon county finances. Second, the county could set up a centralized purchasing and accounting system as one of the duties of the administrator, and the savings could be substantial for the taxpayer. Third, the hiring and firing of personnel could be done on a merit basis, and this would improve personnel practices by attracting highly qualified persons for county positions. It also appears that county boards in the populous township counties are too large for efficiency and good administration. Thirty-five, forty and fifty members on a county board are too many. Consideration should be given at future legislative sessions to making such boards smaller; too many on any corporate body, governmental or private, makes it unwieldy.

"The Federation favors local government, but all responsible citizens should work to make it stronger and more responsive to the people," Scott concluded in his statement.

The 10th District American Legion and Auxiliary Child Welfare Co-chairmen, Mr. Jack Zannin, Fox Lake, and Mrs. William Franzen, Libertyville, are in charge of this annual distribution of Christmas gifts to these four children's homes. Other Post and Unit Child Welfare Chairmen will accompany "Santa" on his rounds. Mrs. Burt Anderson is the Antioch Unit's Child Welfare Chairman.

Unbeaten Sequoits Host Grant on Friday

Antioch fought off a scrappy Round Lake quintet Friday night at Round Lake and successfully opened the defense of their Northwest Suburban title with a 73-62 win over the Panthers. It was the fifth consecutive victory for Rog Andrews' unbeaten Sequoits.

The Sequoits jumped off to a 22-10 first quarter lead but the scrappy Panthers wouldn't let the game get out of their reach. Antioch led at halftime, 34-25.

The Round Lake quint rallied in the third period and outscored the Sequoits 20-17 for the quarter. They maintained their rally in the early part of the fourth quarter and pulled to within four points before the Sequoits regained their poise and pulled away to the final 11 point margin.

The Sequoits again showed balanced scoring with Tyrone Walls taking honors with 24 points. He was followed by Don Zeman, 15, Mike Sternbenz 12, Mike Kelly 12, and Tom Blackman with 10. Doug Hall led for Round Lake with 25 points.

Antioch had a slim edge in rebounding, 38 to 34, with Walls doing most of the work with 13. Sternbenz collected 9 rebounds.

Antioch hit a blistering 48% from the field while their foes hit on 24 of 68 for 35%.

Antioch returns to their home court Friday for a game with Grant and then goes to Lake Forest Saturday for a tussle with the Scots.

Soph Squad Adds 3rd Win
Antioch's Soph squad racked up their third consecutive win of the season in the evening's curtain raiser by downing the Round Lake preps 64 to 49.

Bruce Emfield was the leading scorer in the game with 20 points on 9 field goals and two free throws. The Sequoits were trailing 13-12 at the end of the first period but took control in the second quarter and were never behind after that.

This includes football at the varsity, sophomore and freshman levels and cross country at the varsity and freshman levels.

A total of seven coaches are employed in the fall program.

Flowers Enchant

Christmas is the season of storybook enchantment — a holiday rife in fables and fantasies for the young-at-heart.

The familiar Christmas tree, gleaming with festive tinsel and trim, is a centuries-old holiday delight. According to legend, a kindly woman once decorated a tree on Christmas Eve, and during the night spiders spun webs on the tree's branches. Before morning an angel changed the webs to sparkling silver.

Evergreen trees, plants and flowers are a Yuletide tradition, and your FTD florist will help dress your home in the merry magic of the season. This year, trim a gala tree with bright Christmas ornaments and your favorite flower. Ask your florist to place roses, carnations or pompons in tiny water-filled tubes. Wrap the tubes in ribbon and tie them with bows on the branches of your tree.

The Season's greenery, a symbol of everlasting life, and red blossoms for joy and laughter make holiday-bright bouquets for Yuletide decorating or festive greetings for family and friends. An ancient tale says that the red Christmas rose sprang from the ground at an angel's bidding, and centuries ago the flowers were placed at the entrances of homes to keep the occupants from harm. Today, floral experts suggest red roses to help set a cheery holiday table. Make a merry mixture of roses and dark green holly in a straw basket. Dot the arrangements with miniature gilded pine cones and sprinkle with sparkling snow.

One of the oldest Yuletide fables says that on the first Christmas all the flowers and trees burst into bloom in spite of wintry weather. This Christmas, fresh flowers in festive holiday arrays will make your home blossom with the warmth and magic of the season of joy.

Here's how to trim the tree: Start at the top and work down. The tree trimmer who starts elsewhere runs not only the risk of knocking off some of the ornaments, but knocking over the tree as well.

GIFTS FOR MEN

"It's hard to Christmas-shop for men" for Christmas. That's the complaint of many a weary shopper.

Cheer up, it's getting better every year. No need to settle for a tie or a pair of socks any more. There are gifts galore in every price range.

For the smoker, Klass Men's Store has an assortment of novelty cigarette lighters that will be a real conversation piece and perform a useful service besides. If he watches the stock market, let him light his cigarette from a small copy of a ticker tape machine. Or maybe a copy of an old-fashioned Victrola would please him more.

A windshield defroster that plugs into the cigarette lighter will please any man that drives, and who doesn't? By the way, he can also use it to dry his hair if he's the camping-out type.

Every man likes the battery-powered personal appliances. Some at Klass's are a massage master, for those sore muscles, and a hand vacuum cleaner he can use on his suit or the car's upholstery.

Cuff link and tie pin sets are old stand-bys that still please. Men's colognes and other toilet articles in the newer scents are available at Klass's, too.

Stan has an assortment of velour shirts that will please almost any male. And if you're buying for a man in your own household, don't pass up the popular no-press shirts and pants. It'll save you a lot of ironing.

For the man who has everything, you might try the electric shoe shiner at The Shoe Box, complete with a 24K gold finish. The Shoe Box has an assortment of shoe shine sets, down to a compact travel kit that's just right for the man in service.

If he already has a shoe shiner, you might give him a gift certificate for a pair of Florsheims or Hush Puppies. Or a pair of slippers. Hahn's Jewelry Store is another place you can get a lot of ideas for that hard-to-please man. Transistor ra-

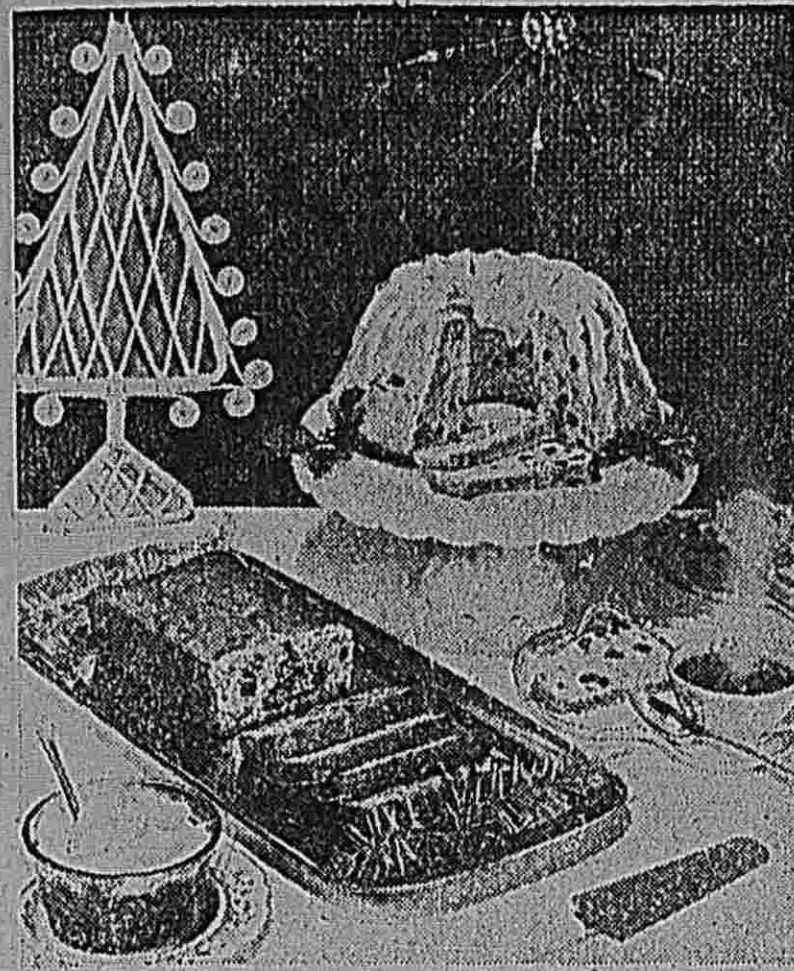

Ever-Lovin' Gift From Your Oven

Delicious homemade breads are most welcome to any homemaker who has a houseful of company for the holidays. Here are two easy recipes for gift-giving from the home economists of the R. T. French Company.

Christmas Tea Bread is a light yeast bread that requires no kneading or special handling. Its fine moist texture and excellent keeping qualities come from the instant mashed potato granules. A touch of lemon and orange peel adds intriguing flavor. Use the prepared pecans which save you the fuss and bother of grating the citrus peels yourself. A rum-flavored sugar glaze crowns the cake in a festive way.

GLAZE: Combine 1 cup confectioners' sugar, 1 tablespoon soft butter, 1 tablespoon water, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, and 1/2 teaspoon rum extract (or other flavor as desired). Beat until smooth.

Prune-Pecan Loaf is another fine holiday bread. It is chock full of plump prunes and crunchily pecans.

Prune-Pecan Loaf
2 cups sifted flour
2 3/4 cup sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 3/4 cup coarsely chopped pecans
1 cup coarsely chopped cooked prunes
1/2 cup prune juice

1 egg beaten
2 teaspoons orange peel
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and soda. Add pecans. Combine prunes, prune juice, egg, orange peel, butter, and vanilla extract; add to dry mixture.

Gifts For Children

Christmas is for children, first and most especially, and there's no lack of toys and other presents on display for the younger set, from tiny toddlers to the near-teens.

Mothers looking for that special Christmas outfit for a little girl, new-born to size 14, are sure to find just what they want at either Pearl Taylor's Tot Shop or MariAnne's, both on Main St.

In addition to the regular items of girl's clothing, MariAnne's carries a full line of Girl Scout supplies. It's the only store in Antioch that carries them, so here's where to look for the gifts for Girl Scouts.

MariAnne's has everything for the stylish young lady, whether she's three or thirteen years old. If you're looking for a special little luxury gift for a special little girl, there are washable robes with simulated fur collar, and cuffs in sizes as small as three years. And of course these yummy sweaters in the softest knits and all colors of the rainbow.

The Tot Shop has a new line of "Dream Pels" in which may delight that hard-to-buy-for teenager even more than her little sister. There are stuffed animals of every kind, from a mouse to Lambie Pie. And very, very reasonable.

Red velour shirts, in sizes up to four, are for either boys or girls, and right in the Christmas spirit. Also just in are velvet dresses for little girls, up to size 4.

Some of the sleep-sets for the tiniest member of the family, up to size 1, are just right for the Christmas season, bright red and complete with a little cap. The perfect outfit for that Christmas picture you'll cherish.

Little boys' or girls' outfits by WonderfAll, Carter or Healthtex, can be found at the Tot Shop in a wide range of colors and styles. There's a selection of stuffed toys, too, some of them musical. And beguiling lamps for the children's room.

Outdoor Lights Welcome Guests

Crisp new styling, safety, and ease of installation make low-voltage outdoor lights a decorative as well as practical choice for Christmas.

They are a new and different Christmas gift idea, welcome to garden and yard fans and handy for those who want to beautify or highlight exterior features of their homes.

Those who light up evergreen, other foliage, or outdoor decorations for Christmas like the safe low voltage, and economy and flexibility of installation of the outdoor accent lights.

Available this Christmas season is a complete convenience kit—lamps, transformer, cable, colored lens covers, and timer. Called Malibu lights, they require only 12 volts of power and no expensive, permanent installation work.

No underground wiring is needed. The low voltage is supplied from a compact transformer which converts 110-volt housepower, and the current is carried by a plastic coated cable placed along the ground. Low voltage has the advantage of safety and low operating cost. The bare ends of a 12-volt cable could be held without danger of shock or burn, according to the manufacturer, the International Register Company of Chicago.

The lights in sets of six or three with 100 or 50 feet of cable come with detachable ground stages and house mounting brackets and assorted colored lens covers. Designer styled lamp housings and stakes are break- and weather-resistant plastic.

Designed for all climates, seasons and weather, the Malibu lights are pinned into the weatherproofed cable with a push. They can be unpinned and moved to another position and the plastic coat of the cable resealed.

Make Safe, Inexpensive Ornaments

Replenish your supply of Christmas tree ornaments each year is an expensive proposition. But if you and the children make your own out of a home-made "play-clay," you'll save money. You'll also wind up with festive fire-proof ornaments that won't shatter into hundreds of dangerous little sliv-

Toymaker's Tips For Parents

Christmas Shopping With The Experts

Shopping for Christmas toys may seem almost as much of a problem today as buying a new family automobile.

Thanks to the ingenuity of the toy industry, Dad and Mom now can choose from literally thousands of different toys, priced from a fraction of a dollar to ten or more times that amount. But when they start on their annual Santa Claus expedition, they needn't be confused by the tremendous variety on toy department shelves, says Gordon E. Batdorf, father of five children who range in age from 5 to 18.

Gordon Batdorf has unique qualifications for guiding parents on their annual big tour through the toy stores. Besides being an experienced father, he is president of Tonka Toys, a leading manufacturer whose steel toy trucks and construction vehicles are known to a generation of Americans.

What does he look for when he's shopping for Christmas?

● Try to match the toy to the child's physical and mental development. Pre-school girls and boys can be thrilled with the same playthings, whether they're dolls or dummy trucks. Older children require toys tailored to their age and sex. Even if it's fun for the parents to participate, don't buy a toy that the child can't fully enjoy without grown-up help.

● Make sure you understand how a toy—or game—works. If it needs batteries, have a supply of fresh ones. If it's a game, study the rules in advance. There's nothing more frustrating for youngsters than a Christmas present they can't immediately enjoy.

● For younger children—under ten—try to select toys they have to work with. These should challenge their interest and participation, not toys that work automatically while they watch. Just as in grown-up life, it's better to play and participate than simply sit in the stands and look on.

● Good design and construction are important, not only because they guarantee the money is well spent but also because they help teach the child the value of fine workmanship. Inspect the quality of the materials used. If you want to be sure the toy will outlive Christmas day, High-grade materials, well finished and accurately assembled mean your toy investment is good for years rather than days.

● Safety is always a prime consideration. While the American toy industry has made great strides in guaranteeing the safety of the young toy user, we have many imported toys on the market. Always check a toy for dangerously sharp edges or points. If a toy uses electricity, make sure it has the "underwriter-approved" label.

● When even one special toy for each child seems to stretch because they help teach the child the value of fine workmanship. Inspect the quality of the materials used. If you want to be sure the toy will outlive Christmas day, High-grade materials, well finished and accurately assembled mean your toy investment is good for years rather than days.

● Your safest choice in toys, for all but the very youngest, are things that enable the child to imitate the grown-up world of his parents. By the same token, these are often the most educational because they incorporate exercise in physical dexterity, as well as imaginative play.

● And as a last caution, buy toys with appeal for the children, not for yourself. The toy that intrigues an adult is often likely to bore a child.

Ladies, Be Sure, Be Subtle.. When Shopping His Apparel

1. Subtly take inventory, if possible, of the gentleman's wardrobe to see what he needs—items that are missing, others that need replacing or updating, etc. Have knowledge of the fashion image the man prefers and stay within these limits. Some men like one look to the exclusion of all others while other men like to change their dress by wearing all of today's looks.

2. Choose furnishings—shirts, ties, shoes etc.—to fit the look the gentleman wears. A natural shoulder man would undoubtedly choose styles altogether different from the advance fashion man.

3. Pick colors favored by the gift recipient. 4. Be sure of sizes. Make a list of sizes—lots of sizes—such as spit, sport jacket, trouser inseam (for slacks), waist, shirt sleeves and collar, hose, shoes, hat, and gloves, for examples.

5. Sometimes you can't obtain sizes and still be subtle about it. In this case, select a gift that isn't sized. For instance: ties, cuff links, silk squares for jacket pockets, etc.

6. Another place to be subtle is in offering sartorial guidance disguised in the form of a gift. Remember, it's not YOUR gift and you won't have to wear it. Pick something he'll like and will wear. You'll do little sartorial uplifting if the gift never gets out of the drawer or closet.

7. Finally, buy early. You'll find a greater selection of sizes, colors and styles available.

Sock Trio

Alas, poor Dad! He's usually too busy on Christmas eve, filling everyone's stockings, to hang his own. This year, surprise him with amusing little men to present his favorite gifts of socks and ties. The "wear-with-all" of the gift involves soft, comfortable socks and handsome, silky-looking ties, both of Crestan acrylic fiber. You might present one set, or a wardrobe of sets, each in keeping with Dad's special interests. For even more fun, tuck a "go-with" gift in the hand of each sock man. To make the sock-and-tie men, stuff the toe of one sock with its mate and some tissue paper. This becomes the head. Then, make a cone of heavy paper and fit the sock leg over it. Tie the necktie around the neck with a four-in-hand knot, tucking excess under the cone. Bits of felt, paper, or buttons may be used as features and shirt collar. Pipe cleaners twisted around the body make the arms. Tape or tie the extra gift — something such as a key ring to sport with the new car; a new pen for his business hours; a good looking tie clasp for dress-up evenings out — to the pipe-cleaner hands. There you have it — a clever, new kind of stuffed stocking for Dad at Christmas.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS THAT ARE NEW OR DIFFERENT

A new item on the market can be found at Reeves Drug Store and will delight any woman who receives it for Christmas. The Dexter sewing machine, battery operated, will sew the hem on your dress while you have it on, sew on buttons, zig-zag stitch. Only $5.

A new hair dryer, at Wilton's Electric Shop, has a comb and a brush attachment. Dries the hair while you comb and brush. Perfect for the young gal who wears her hair straight. Also has the hood for conventional drying.

At MariAnne's and Hallmark gifts — some antique dishes and reproductions of antiques. Huml figures, reproductions of Carnival glass and Mary Gregory glass. Bigelow "Constant Comment" tea.

At the General Store — as the name implies, an assortment of articles reminiscent of earlier Christmases. The back room has been opened up and features some unusual and lovely Christmas decorations. CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR WOMEN

If you're looking for something pretty for her to wear, you'll find plenty of ideas at any one of the women's clothing stores in town. MariAnne's, Gibbs & Jenson, Jayne's and Lor-A-Lyn's. In Lor-A-Lyn's, where a closing out sale is in process, you have the added bonus of bargain prices.

You can't go wrong with a sweater, and you'll find a selection of the new knits and embroidered sweaters (this year in every color under the sun). If you want to really please her, add a matching skirt or slacks. Or check the knit suits, in the fascinating new stitches and gay holiday colors.

Some lush items at Gibbs & Jenson's: short, sleeveless sequin tops; gold lame hostess slacks and overblouse; mink collars to dress up plain dresses and suits. And some charming Christmas jewelry at very low prices.

Jayne's has some quilted satin lounging pajama sets with that luxury look that's just right for Christmas.

The Shoe Box has matching purse and shoe sets, or give her a gift certificate and let her have the fun of shopping for her own.

Both Reeves and King's Drug Stores have an assortment of glamorous perfumes, and all sorts of dresser accessories so dear to the feminine heart.

Hahn's Jewelry Store has jewelry in every price range. Pendants, watches, necklaces, pins, charm bracelets and charms. And if she'd like something special for her home, look at their glass, chinaware and silver sets.

GIFTS FOR MEN

Reeves Drugs has Timex watches for both men and women, and toilet articles for both sexes. Men's colognes, alone or in sets with shaving lotions, etc., are always welcome gifts. Razors, manicure sets, you can find everything to keep that special man well-groomed.

Wilton's Electric Store has a variety of electric and battery-operated gifts that are man-pleasers. The new cartridge RCA-Victor recorder does away with the nuisance of threading tape and puts him in operation in jig time. Radios of all kinds, electric knives, razors, blankets. And if you want to really go all out, get him a stereo record player.

If his tastes run to clothes, Barnstable's Department Store has everything from socks to jackets. Mr. Sid colognes by Schiaparelli, shirts and sweaters for the male of any age are available.

Barnstable's is Boy Scout headquarters and they have a full line of official accessories for Scouts.

Gibbs & Jenson's has everything for the sportsman, from guns to sports shirts. They have the equipment for archery, golf, hunting, fishing or what-have-you. If he likes to explore, they have compasses, either pocket or wrist style. He can always find his way home with this one.

FOR THOSE HARD-TO-PLEASE TEENS

Girl or boy, the teens and the college set love clothes, but you'd better know exactly what he or she wants to make sure it's exchangeable if you intend to buy clothes for this age group for Christmas.

His and Her items are big at this age, if they're old enough to "go steady." His and Her sweaters and shirts are available at Barnstable's, as are His and Her pajamas, razors (tiny ones in compact cases) and pill boxes.

Hahn's has charm bracelets and a varied assortment of charms, a perennial favorite of teens.

Stuffed animals are a favorite of teen-age girls. King's Drug Store has a charming assortment and the autograph dolls can be found at the Country Store on Main St. Dream Pets can be found at the Tot Shop or the Hallmark Gift Shop.

Sports equipment, some of the games that are popular with adults as well as teen-agers, and always, of course, records. A full selection of these can be found at the Ben Franklin Store.

A striking centerpiece for your Christmas table can be easily made. Just heap balls of blue and silver, or your favorite colors, on an oblong platter. Soften the base of two white candles and stick them at each end of the platter.

How To Perk Up, Re-fuel During Hectic Holidays

At this hectic time of the year everyone can use a pick-me-up, so, when neighbors come calling, take time out and greet them with a fragrant pot of freshly brewed coffee and a plate of fruit drop cookies.

A box of these delectable goodies, delicately flavored with coffee and cloves, also make a thoughtful and truly personal gift to slip into the hands of the departing guest.

The coffee you serve should be full-flavored, piping hot and plentiful. To make sure it's the best, use six parts of water to one part of ground coffee, no matter which brewing method you favor. This easy-to-remember rule from the Coffee Information Service enables you to make excellent coffee with any kind of measuring device.

To make the delicious fruit drop cookies, follow this recipe:

Fruit Drop Cookies
1 lb. jar glass fruit mix
1/2 cup sifted all purpose flour
1 cup butter or margarine
2/3 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 cup sour cream
2 tablespoons powd. instant coffee
3/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
Glaze cherries, halved

Pecan halves

Dredge fruit with half cup flour, tossing to coat well; set aside. Cream butter and sugar together. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each time. Beat in sour cream. Sprinkle powdered coffee over mixture and blend well. Gradually add 3/4 cups flour, sifted several times with baking powder, soda, salt and cloves. Stir until dough is smooth, fold in floured fruit.

Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls, about two inches apart, on lightly greased cookie sheet. Top each with half a cherry or pecan. Bake in preheated oven (450 deg.) for about eight minutes, or until tops spring back which gently pressed with tips of fingers. Remove and cool on racks. Store in covered container to keep fresh. Yield about 8 dozen.

Yum! Everybody Loves Home-Made Fudge

The ultimate in Christmas giving—and receiving, too—is a present that is made especially for the recipient. Whether it is jewelry or bookends, a patchwork quilt, sweater or something delicious to eat, such gifts are always a delight.

Teen-agers, in particular, like to give and receive creative gifts with a personal touch. And it is a perfect opportunity for teen-age girls to show off their skills in the cooking department.

One inexpensive gift suggested by the home economists at Carnation Company is Choco-nut Caramel Fudge. The fudge can be made easily the five-minute way with velvety evaporated milk. The convenient-to-use milk makes the fudge creamy smooth and gives it a firm consistency.

2 cups sugar
1½ cups (1½ 6-ounce packages) butterscotch pieces
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup (6-ounce package) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
½ cup chopped walnuts
Mix evaporated milk and sugar in saucepan. Bring to a full boil and boil 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat.

Add marshmallows, butterscotch and vanilla. Stir 1 to 2 minutes, until marshmal-lows are blended. Pour into buttered 9-inch square pan. Cool.

Melt chocolate over hot water. Spread chocolate over butterscotch fudge. Sprinkle with walnuts. Cool. Cut into squares.

MAGIC OF GLUE 'N' GLITTER

You can work decorator magic on hundreds of Christmas items, with white glue and a sprinkle of glitter.

The glue, which comes in a plastic dispenser, is called Glu-Bird, and writes like a fountain pen. No mess, no fuss... all ingenious effects, to the limits of your needs and your imagination.

The glitter, put out by the same company, sprinkles from a shaker-top jar. Tiny shimmering glitter particles come in many holiday colors, to lend fairyland fantasy to even the most commonplace articles.

Just write or draw as you please, then, while the glue is still moist, dust with glitter. They will stick on the fresh glue, the rest will shake off and can be put back into the dispenser. No waste!

There's almost no end to the decorative possibilities of this handy twosome. Use on Christmas candles, greeting cards, centerpieces, tree or-

How Christmas Seals Got Started

Wanted: $300 to help some people. The people were eight sufferers from Tuberculosis; their would-be helper was Emily Bissell, a Red Cross volunteer, with plenty of good will but no ready cash.

The time was 1907—a good year for philanthropic inspirations, because Jacob Riis, famous Danish-born journalist and social crusader, was in business full blast. Emily Bissell chanced to read one of his articles; it told of the arrival of a letter from Denmark, with something called a Christmas Seal attached to the envelope. The Seal helped support a hospital for child victims of TB in Denmark.

Emily Bissell, seizing the hint, persuaded a printer to run off a quantity of seals of her own design. Nobody's ever heard of such a thing; they didn't sell. Seeking publicity for her idea, she talked to the editor of the Philadelphia North American, an important daily of the time. He shrugged it off; why bring up a disagreeable subject like TB at Christmas time?

About to admit defeat, she buttonholed a special writer for the paper, Leigh Mitchell Hodges, and told him her story. Hodges, fired with the drama of the idea, went back to the editor and soon convinced him. The next day's North American appeared with its front page completely bordered with Miss Bissell's Christmas Seals, accompanied by an appeal. The net result was—not $300 but $3,000 in funds. Christmas Seals, now a firmly rooted American Tradition, help in a hundred ways to fight tuberculosis. Here in Lake County, the TB Association will use 1965 Christmas funds to step up further their various case detection and research programs.

The best way to assure the continued maintenance, and expansion of these programs is to respond early and generously to the 1965 Christmas Seal Campaign.

Early diagnosis of TB—the oldest known respiratory disease—checks the spread. Seals fight TB and other respiratory diseases.

naments, gift decanters, packages and many other items. Use on Christmas paper, cardboard, styrofoam, fabrics and many other surfaces.

Personalize your gifts, etc., by writing the name or message in Glu-Bird and dust with glitter.

Glitter comes in silver, gold, red, green and a host of other colors, including multicolor, and even Glu-Birds that glow in the dark.

Priced so that even the very young can join in the fun, on an allowance, and give their offerings a special charm all their own, far above original cost. These aids to holiday cheer are from the Willhold Company.

Pregenzer In Hospital

Lewis Pregenzer, who has been ill at home for some time, entered Victory Memorial Hospital last Friday. A friend of Lew's suggests that cards from friends would be appreciated.

Lew operated Pregenzer's Grass Lake Resort for many years. The resort was founded by his father, Ray, in 1910. An ardent sportsman himself, Grass Lake Resort was for many years a haven of hunters and anglers.

Lew is also the father of Jack Pregenzer, pitcher who made the big leagues in baseball. Jack was formerly with the San Francisco Giants.

Silver Adds Charm, Elegance

With the accent these days on elegance and entertaining, nothing adds as much to the table as the luster of fine silver, bringing a special glow to family and guests alike. Gleaming silver and festive occasions go together like love and marriage, says the Jewelry Industry Council.

Xmas Shopping Ups Traffic Accidents

"The Christmas holiday season is one of the happiest times of the year for most people, but it also is a time when traffic accidents increase sharply," said Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

The rush and excitement of shopping, plus the hazards of winter weather, combine to create extra dangers for pedestrians and motorists alike, he added.

Cavanagh offered these safety tips for both motorists and pedestrians:

—Don't try to window shop and drive at the same time.

—Don't put packages on the front seat of your car where they may topple and distract the driver, nor on the back window ledge of the car where they may impair your vision.

—Be patient. There will be many delays during the holiday activity.

—Never cross the street in the middle of the block. Never carry so many packages while crossing streets that your vision is obstructed.

—Take it easy, whether you're driving, shopping or walking. There's more danger of an accident when you're tired or excited. Also snow and ice can hinder both walking and driving and contribute to an accident, especially if you are in a hurry.

—If you take the Christmas tree home in your car, make certain it is not blocking the driver's vision. If you have placed the tree in the trunk, don't drive with the trunk lid up.

—Be courteous.

—Keep roads and streets, are slippery, allow yourself more time to get to and from your destination.

Traffic Deaths In Illinois Total 214

November traffic deaths in Illinois totaled 214, according to provisional reports released by the Division of Highways and the State Highway Police. This is an increase of 17% over the 183 deaths in the same month last year.

Late reports and delayed deaths have now increased the September fatality total to 165 and the October fatality total to 222. Death toll for the first 11 months now stands at 1,995.

Christmas Seals fight respiratory diseases, which rank fourth among causes of death in the United States.

MAKE YOUR OWN ORNAMENTS.—Cotton crocheted thread is the major ingredient in creating "string-maze" fantasies. Soak thread in full-strength liquid starch and wrap around an inflated balloon in criss-cross fashion. When thread is dry, deflate and remove the balloon through the top opening. The lacy-looking globe that's left can be decorated with a variety of holiday trims. Hang it on the Christmas tree or suspend it from the ceiling for a festive touch.

Holiday Decorating The Easy Way

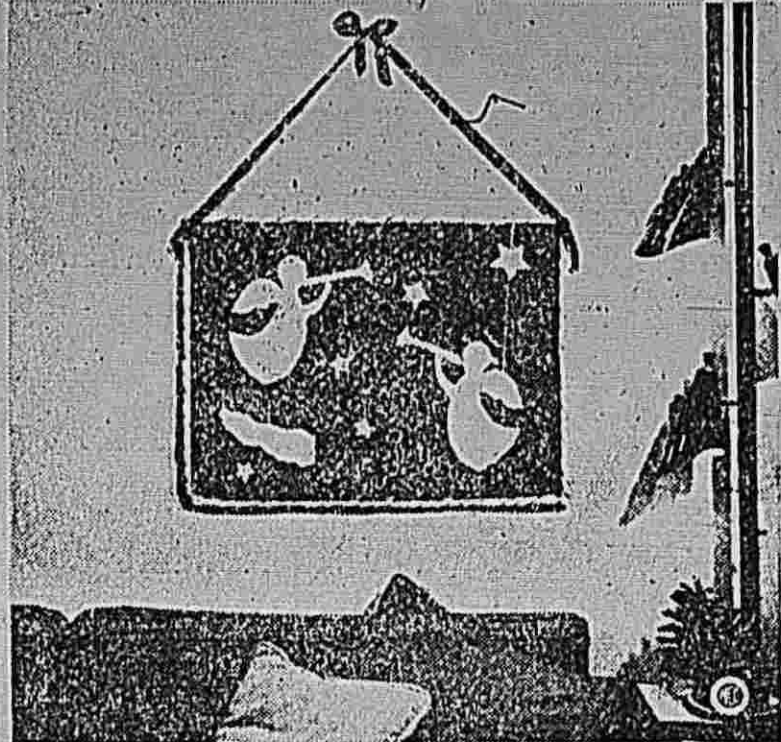

Don't hide Christmas cotton under the tree—it's too pretty to be covered with packages.

Traditionally used as a cover for the Christmas tree base, glitter-sprinkled cotton batting now comes in colored lengths as well as pre-cut shapes to provide "instant" holiday decorating. It converts easily into mantel decorations, unusual wall hangings, delicate mobiles, or eye-catching door decorations.

Flame-proofed for safety, Christmas cotton batting drapes like cloth, is easy to cut, and doesn't require sewing. It's available in white as well as pastel colors of blue, green, or pink sprinkled with silver glitter.

Newest of the pre-cut shapes is a snowy white icicle fringe that's 90 inches long. Sprinkled with multi-colored glitter, it gives a holiday look to a mantel, table edge, window sill, or even a book shelf. Equally versatile for quick decorating is a cotton batting rope entwined with red and green cord.

Another ready-cut shape is a circular tree skirt that can double as a topping for a small round table or provide a snowy-looking setting for a centerpiece.

Here from the National Cotton Council are some how-to tips for decorating with inexpensive Christmas batting.

Turn a table into a festive Christmas package by trimming the cloth with panels of glitter-sprinkled cotton batting. There's no sewing involved. Just pin two-inch strips of white batting across a red or green cloth. Cross them at the center like ribbons on a package, and pin a soft bow of batting at the center. Trim bow with pine cones and Christmas tree ornaments.

Another holiday decoration that doesn't require sewing is a colorful wall plaque made with snowy white bat-

GREETINGS.—Spell out a cheery "Noel" on your front door. Glue glitter-sprinkled green cotton batting to cardboard letters. For the "O," shape wreath from chicken wire and wrap with batting. Trim with red velvet ribbon and artificial holly leaves and berries.

JOLLY FELLOW.—Here's an easy-to-make decoration for your holiday house. Glue glitter-sprinkled white cotton batting to a cardboard circle and triangle for Santa's face and hat. Use pink batting for beard, eyebrows, and cap trim; cotton velvet for facial features.

ing and red corduroy. Cut a cardboard rectangle as large or small as you like and cover it with corduroy. Outline edges of rectangles with cotton batting rope, gluing or pinning in place.

Check magazines and Christmas cards for holiday motifs you can copy or trace—like angels, stars, trees, or candy canes. Cut motifs from decorative batting and arrange them on the corduroy plaque. The batting figures will cling to the fabric without sewing or pinning. Tack streamers of red cotton velvet ribbon to upper edge of plaque for hanging and tie them together in a bow at the top.

Another easy-to-make wall decoration is an eye-catching Santa cut from pink and white cotton batting. It, too, can be made with a cardboard backing. For Santa's face, glue white batting to a cardboard circle about 14 inches in diameter. Use two cardboard triangles, about 12 inches high for his peaked hat and beard. Scallop edges of the cardboard beard and cover with pink batting. Glue white batting to the cardboard hat, then attach hat and beard to Santa's circular face with tape. Add a wide cuff and pompon of Toy shopping can be confusing and even overwhelming with the huge variety of toys available today. Make your toy buying plans prior to your shopping trip, keeping these general considerations in mind.

TOY TIPS

Select the proper toy for the child's age, interest and ability. Select toys that are sturdy and safe. And most important of all, choose toys that are creative and that stir the child's imagination. Here are some specific ideas for different age groups.

Age 1 to 4. Children in this group love to explore, taste and touch. Give them:

- Pull toys—Locomotion fascinates them.
- Stuffed animals—Cuddly animals help bring security.
- Creative toys—Bright, plastic Finger Toys teach simple construction.
- Age 4 to 8. Children now become more active, and imaginative. For this group choose:
- Tricycles and outdoor wheel toys—Active toys are necessary for physical development.
- Construction sets. These develop coordination and manipulative skills—Toy Maker, from which a wide variety of push-pull toys can be made, is a good example.
- Doll families—Excellent for dramatic play.
- Age 8 to 12. Children become much more diversified in their interests. Select for this group:
- Puzzles—Many puzzles are educational and intriguing.
- Challenging toys—Toys that challenge the skill and creative ability are more important now. The Motorized Textoy is an example of a toy that is as creative as the individual child.
- Ice skates, bicycles, bats and balls—The child's enormous energy needs physical toys for an outlet.

Festive Drink For Holidays

Christmas—Crowded shops and too much traffic. Excitement and exhaustion, anticipation and entertainment. But most of all nostalgia and the remembered aromas of good things that filled the kitchen in our childhood.

Somehow mothers had more time, even without dishwashers and all the other pushbutton appliances, to evoke the happiest of holidays with the help of food and drinks designed for this special season.

What about today? How can those old ways be revived, the raves be won and the palate be satisfied—but not at the expense of aching feet?

Here are a few suggestions that you might like to brew so that you can bask in the warm reflection of praise.

—For a cold wintry night a Kahlua Hot Mocha. It takes only a few moments to mix, like this:

1 cup cocoa
2 tablespoons sugar
Dash of salt
Whipped cream
1 3 cup water
3 cups milk
2 tablespoons Kahlua
Mix cocoa, sugar, salt and water. Cook gently 2 minutes. Stir constantly. Add milk. Heat but do not boil.

pink batting to the hat; eyebrow and curled mustache to the face. Use crescents of blue velvet ribbon for eyes and circles of pink and red velvet ribbon for nose, cheeks, and mouth.

Spell out season's greetings on your door with "Noel" letters of silver-sprinkled green cotton batting. Cut letters from cardboard, making each about 12 inches high and eight inches wide. Cover with green batting, folding over edges of letters and taping in place. For the "O," fashion a wreath from chicken wire and punch green batting into the wire. Top the wreath with a red velvet bow, and trim all the "Noel" letters with red holly berries.

Remove from heat. All Kahlua. Stir. Top with whipped cream. Serves 40.

Looking for something you can prepare in the morning before you descend on the stores for the last minute shopping spree? Then here's another dessert, Kahlua Sour parfait.

Dissolve 1 pkg. lemon or lemon-lime flavored gelatin in 1 1/2 cups boiling water. Add 1/2 cup Kahlua and chill until thickened by not firm. Beat 1/2 pint whipping cream until thick. Fold into gelatin mixture and pile in glasses. Chill until firm.

Somehow there's something psychologically nice about these recipes; not only will your guests and family appreciate them, but so will you. First, because they're delicious and, second, because they are quickly and easily done.

After-Christmas Clean-Up

Opening a package is fun—but cleaning up after unwrapping is no fun.

So, before Christmas morning, gather together the following simple clean-up materials:

1. Two large shopping bags: one for paper and ribbon you want to keep, and one for scraps to be thrown away.

2. Whisk broom and dust pan. (Try tying a pine cone

What this all adds up to is a homemaker carrying out the Christmas spirit of giving in the best possible tradition—giving, pleasure to her friends and comfort to herself. After all, a little self-indulgence never hurt anyone—especially the homemaker.

and sprig of holly on these everyday helpers to give them a holiday look.)

3. A bottle of pine cleaner with a sponge. This is for that crushed candy cane or spilled beverage (even as a cleaner, pine oil will keep you in the spirit of the day.)

Store your holiday clean-up equipment in one of the shopping bags and tuck away in the closet where you're hiding Christmas presents.

Dip sprays of your favorite evergreen into white paint, dust with artificial snow, and arrange around a platter heaping with balls. Let the pointed sprays extend several inches at each end of the arrangement for a graceful effect.

Give Feminine Lingerie!

Probably no gift is presented with more pride or purchased with more pleasure than lacy, lovely lingerie at Christmas time.

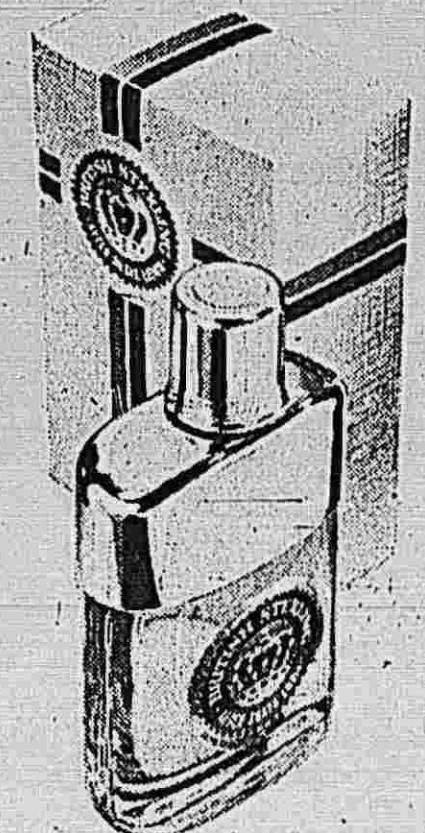

With the resurgence of lace on everything from pajamas to all-over slips, holiday shoppers will be bogged by femininity.

To make sure the man in your life isn't cut adrift in the lingerie department without some guidance, here are suggestions by shopping type, from Gossard-Artemis, on how to get your heart's desire.

If he's a "comparison shopper," he generally waits until the last minute to pick up something special. Because he's always late, he rarely has sizes or color ideas, and hopes to find a sales person with whom he can compare his wife.

Since comparison shopping usually results in an extravagant selection that's either too big or too small, be sure he's equipped with a little note that tells your size, and color preference.

If he's a "companion"

it as "a woman's point of view" — and not pre-Christmas collusion.

If he's a "happy shopper," he runs agog amid the lace, picking the loveliest thing he can find that you would never wear. The only way to stop a happy shopper from post-Christmas return-blues, is to send him to a saleslady that is as happy as he is, but who knows where to draw the line between glamour and the life you really lead.

If he's a "statistical" man, he knows all your sizes, but when it comes to style, he's lost. The best way to turn his mind toward fashion is to make some very specific comments about the lingerie you want, emphasizing your point by showing him photographs of fashions you would like to own.

If he's a "fashion expert," relax and let him do the picking. A man with good taste is a joy to have in the house, and should be especially indulged at Christmas time.
